Synopsis & Infos

In LOOKING FOR ZION director Tamara Erde embarks on a journey following the photographs of her grandfather, Ephraim Erde, a famous Zionist photographer from the 1930s. This journey reveals to her new ideas about his choices and image-making, which are leading her to question and critically examine the history of the Israeli society and the Zionist dream in the past and in the present, as they are reflected from the confrontation of the visuals of her grandfather and through her lens today. LOOKING FOR ZION is the second feature length documentary by Israeli-French director Tamara Erde (THIS IS MY LAND, 2014).
